2. Name of the register

Aalto University Business Students event signup register

3. Data subjects

This register includes personal data of individuals attending the Association's events ("Data subjects").

4. Legal basis and purpose of gathering personal data

The legal basis for gathering personal information, complying with the EU GDPR, is the legitimate interest of the controller of the register.

The purpose of the register is to collect and process the personal data needed to organize the events.

5. Data content

The register contains information needed to organize the Association's events. This includes following data:

- Data subject's first and last name;
- Data subject's email address;
- Data subject's phone number;
- Data subject's special dietary needs;
- Data subject's preferred communication language; and
- Alternating event-specific information.

6. Regular sources of information

Personal data is collected from the data subjects themselves.

7. Regular disclosures and transfers of personal data

Personal data is not disclosed or transferred regularly.

Personal data can be disclosed to Association's co-operation partners in order to organize the Association's events. Personal data can be disclosed to Association's co-operation partners for other than event-related purposes only with the data subject's consent.

Personal data can be transferred to other service providers in order to execute the personal data system ("System"). The service provider executing the technical maintenance of the member register may transfer personal data in accordance with applicable privacy legislation and this privacy statement.

8. Transfers of personal data outside of EU or the EEA

Personal data won't be transferred outside the European Union or the European Economic Area by the Association. However, the Association may use a service provider that is located outside of EU or the EEA. The transfer of personal data outside of EU or the EEA is always carried out on one of the following legal grounds:

- The European Commission has decided that an adequate level of data protection has been ensured in the recipient country;
- The Association has implemented the appropriate safeguards for the transfer of personal data using standard terms of privacy approved by the European Commission. The data subject has the right to obtain a copy of these standard clauses by contacting the Association's contact person; or
- The data subject has consented to the transfer of their personal data, or there is a lawful ground for the transfer.

Access to the personal data is limited to what is necessary in order to carry out the services. The transfer of personal data outside of EU or the EEA is always based on current legislation on the processing of personal data and is carried out in accordance with that legislation.

9. Protection of personal data and information security

All digitally handled personal data is stored securely in the Association's System. Access to the System is limited to only authorized individuals that need the access in order to handle their work assignments. These individuals use their personal usernames and passwords to access the System.

Personal data is secured from outsiders and the use of member data is supervised. Data subjects have access to their own information with personal usernames and passwords. Personal data sent outside the Association is encrypted. Workstations and storages are secured.

Google LCC is responsible for the technical maintenance and protection of the event signup register.

10. Retention period of data

Personal data is stored only for as long as necessary and data will be deleted from the register within a reasonable time after the event has ended. For a normal event this usually means two weeks after the event has ended. If some of the information is still required after this for exceptional reasons such as collecting delayed payments, can the data of the affected data subjects be retained until the situation has passed.

Personal data will be retained for a maximum of 10 years after the event has ended on the basis of the Association's legitimate interest. Personal data may be stored for longer time periods if the applicable legislation or Association's contractual obligations require it.

11. Data subject's rights

The data subject has the right to object to the processing of his/hers personal data for direct marketing purposes at any given time. The data subject may provide the Association with channel-specific consents and restrictions (e.g. prohibit marketing via email).

In addition the data subject has per se following rights at any time in accordance with applicable data protection legislation:

- receive information about the processing of his/hers personal data;
- have access to his/hers own personal data and inspect his/hers personal data processed by the Association;
- demand correction and supplementation of inaccurate or incorrect personal data;
- demand the removal of own personal data;
- withdraw his/hers consent and object to the processing of personal data insofar as the processing of personal data is based on consent;
- receive his/hers personal data in digital form and transfer those to another service provider given that the data subject has delivered the data to the Association personally, the Association processes the personal data in question based on consent and the processing is automatic; and
- demand the processing of his/hers personal data to be restricted.

The data subject must submit the request for execution of the above-mentioned according to section 13 of this privacy statement. The Association may ask the data subject to specify the request in writing and verify the data subject's identity before processing the request. The Association may refuse to execute the request based on applicable legislation.

12. Right to complain to supervising authority

Each data subject has the right to complain to the relevant supervising authorities or to the supervisory authorities of the Member State of the European Union where the data subject's resident or workplace is located if the data subject sees that his/hers personal data has not been processed according to applicable data protection legislation.

13. Contact information

Requests considering the data subject's rights, questions about this privacy statement and other contacts should be sent via email to the contact person Saku Virtanen at webmaster@kyweb.fi. The data subject may also contact us personally or in writing at the address below:
